Newsletter of the Oklahoma Pastel Society
January 2012

Read any Good Paintings Lately?

Join us Monday night January 9 as Dennis Parker shows how to take a boring photograph and turn it into a painting that reads like a bestseller. He has taught for over 30 years and studied with well known artists through out the country including at the Arts Student League of New York. He recently completed teaching a 6 week course on composition and will incorporate some of that information in this demo.

Don't miss the opportunity to start the new year off creatively with OPS.
